Female Intuition.

When some women realize that they are superior to their husbands they waste a lot of time in regretting the fact.

IT'S UP TO A. & M. AND BAYLOR UNI.

Only Two Texas Teams Considered in Southwest Conference Title—Arkansas Strong Contender.

Dallas, Texas, Oct. 30.—Baylor University's defeat of Texas University at Austin Saturday by a score of 7 to 3 and the Texas Farmers' last minute rally in which they took a spectacular game from the Haskell Indians of Lawrence, Kan., 13 to 6, afforded Texas football fans much material for comment as the outstanding events in Southwestern conference games last week.

Being an intrastate game with the Texas championship at stake, the Baylor-Texas game proved the most interesting. By it, Texas University has been eliminated from the Southwestern conference and state championship games. The honor now lies between the Texas Aggies, Baylor and the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. Baylor does not play the Arkansas team, but the Farmers take on both contenders later in the season.

The Haskell-A. and M. game afforded many thrills, the climax coming when the Texans, by a fourth period rally, nosed out by a tremendous offense which gave them 13 counts in the final ten minutes of the game.
